General Conditions

1. Insured's Duty: We will provide insurance as described in this document provided that You or any person claiming to be covered under this Policy observe the terms and conditions at all times.

Under English law, a business insured (i.e. an insured who has bought insurance wholly or mainly for purposes related to their trade, business or profession) has a duty to disclose to the (re)insurer every material circumstance which it knows or ought to know after reasonable search. This is the case before cover is placed, when it is renewed and any time that it is varied. The Policy wording may also provide that this duty continues for the duration of the Policy. A circumstance is material if it would influence a (re)insurer's judgment in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms. If you are in any doubt whether a circumstance is material we recommend that it should be disclosed. Failure to disclose a material circumstance may entitle a (re)insurer to impose different terms on your cover or proportionately reduce the amount of any claim payable. In some circumstances a (re)insurer will be entitled to avoid the Policy from inception and in this event any claims under the Policy would not be paid.

2. Claims Procedure: You or Your legal representative shall give notice to Our notifiable agent, Gallagher Bassett (GB) as soon as is practicable of any accident, loss, or damage which may be the subject of indemnity under this Policy with any particulars thereof.
