About our Aviation team

The Aviation industry is vast, complex, and ever-changing, and the risks involved present unique challenges that require innovative (re)insurance solutions. The main objective of our Aviation team at Amwins Global Risks is to deliver solutions to our international client base in the form of comprehensive, competitively priced (re)insurance coverages that satisfy the individual needs of each client.

Our team has extensive experience that has equipped us with a deep understanding of the multi-faceted (re)insurance coverages required. The team specialises in both General Aviation and Aerospace, however, our brokers have experience negotiating, placing, and managing (re) insurance placements pertaining to all areas of the industry, from international airline accounts to aircraft manufacturers and government tenders.

With well-established underwriter relations, both in London and the international marketplace, together with our expertise, in-house claims handling and administrative services, Amwins Global Risks' Aviation team is well-respected and well-equipped to provide exceptional service.

“What I like about the aviation industry is its constant movement and change, offering a dynamic work environment. Every account has their own characteristics keeping us engaged and challenged, the learning never ends! As a global industry, we have the opportunity to interact with people from other countries, building strong global connections.”

Corinne King
Account Handler

joel.vian@amwins.com

“I enjoy working in aviation insurance because it is such a niche line of business and there is so much to learn every day. Being a broker gives me a platform to meet many insurance professionals and that is key in developing my knowledge of the aviation industry as a whole.”

Christina Brooker
Claims Account Handler
+44 (0)124 2531 016
agr.aclaims@amwins.com

“I enjoy working on our aviation claims where no two days are the same! I handle the claims from first notice to payment and work with a variety of loss adjusters, lawyers, and insurance professionals.”

Amwins Global Risks is the international division of Amwins, the largest specialty wholesale distributor in the world, which places more than $40bn in annual premium. We place over $3.5bn of that premium, bringing the market muscle and global reach required to find solutions for the most complex risks. With over 780 employees around the world, and a global footprint across more than 140 countries, we've cemented our place as a top 10 contributor to Lloyd's. We're one of the largest independent brokers – and the largest binding authority broker – in the London Market.
