

A black and white photograph of an industrial refinery. A tall, cylindrical smokestack in the center emits a thick plume of white smoke that rises into the sky. To the left of the smokestack is a complex structure of metal scaffolding, pipes, and platforms. To the right, there are large vertical storage tanks and more industrial equipment. The sky is overcast. In the top right corner, there is a decorative pattern of small blue triangles.

GLOBAL RISKS

We help you win.

The Energy division at Amwins Global Risks (AGR) has a wealth of knowledge in placing complex Energy risks. Our Energy team is comprised of nearly 30 brokers and account executives, backed up by an experienced Energy claims team.

AGR has a dedicated Energy unit with exclusive facilities that accommodates all Energy Risks across Upstream, Midstream, Downstream and Power. We also have complimentary Political Violence and Liability programs to fulfil all the requirements of your energy clients.

AGR has a 20-strong Hull team to bolster our expertise in the cross-over marine energy space and we have a very close collaborative approach with our Hull, P&I and War colleagues. We will use this approach and our considerable bench strength to afford the best possible solutions.

The AGR Energy division have every element of the energy lifecycle covered and our holistic approach will bring best-in-class risk transfer solutions to your clients.
