

Kickstart Your Career with L.A.U.N.C.H.

A paid path to your full-time underwriting career

What is L.A.U.N.C.H.?

The Underwriter L.A.U.N.C.H. Program is an educational initiative for early-career professionals interested in jumpstarting their underwriting careers. This paid opportunity starts in the Charlotte, NC, office and focuses on building Leadership, Aptitude, Underwriting Principles, Networking, Culture and Hands-On experiences.

Founded in 2025, the program is designed to cultivate the next generation of talent by providing an in-depth look at Amwins, the Underwriting division and the role of an underwriter. After completing training, each program associate will transfer to one of Amwins Underwriting's operating company locations and start an entry-level, full-time underwriting position. With numerous operating companies throughout the U.S., this program offers you the flexibility to explore rewarding career opportunities in exciting cities nationwide.

About Amwins Underwriting

Amwins Underwriting is a division of Amwins, a leading global specialty insurance distributor. What does that mean? Basically, Amwins is the “middleman” between retail insurance agents and insurance carriers. The Amwins Underwriting division is a managing general agent (MGA) comprising more than 20 operating companies across 40+ locations, providing a wide range of programs nationwide.

“

Moving to Charlotte and participating in the L.A.U.N.C.H. program after college was a deeply defining experience for me, both personally and professionally, teaching me invaluable life skills. I recommend the program to anyone willing to embrace uncertainty; you'll discover strengths you didn't know you had and build lifelong friendships along the way. – Eric Le, 2025 cohort
