

Workers' Compensation For Community Associations

Every Condo/HOA should have a Workers' Compensation Policy Employees or Not!

Exposures Covered include:

Injuries to Condo/HOA Board Members, Volunteers, and more...

Coverage Considerations:

- 1. An employee of an uninsured contractor is injured at the association and the employer has not provided proper coverage. The association may be required by the local Labor/Industrial authorities to step in as the "employer" as it relates to Labor Code benefits owed that injured employee.
- 2. A volunteer working on behalf of the association is injured during the course of their duties. The association should (and ultimately may be required to) treat that injury as "work-related", thereby requiring benefits owed under the Labor Code.
- 3. General Liability (GL) EXCLUDES bodily injury to an employee. An injury to a volunteer or to an employee of a contractor could be deemed an injury to an employee of the association and would be excluded by your GL carrier. The "If-Any" Workers' Compensation Policy that includes a Voluntary Compensation Endorsement* will provide coverage to an injured employee as evidenced in the losses outlined below.
